Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

1. Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Regarding claim 20, the claimed subject matter "Computer software, residing on a computer-readable storage medium..." is directed toward a software program per se. Since a computer program is merely a set of instructions capable of being executed by a computer, the computer program itself is not a process. In contest, a claimed computer-readable medium encoded with a data structure defines structural and functional interrelationships between the data structure and the computer software and hardware components which permit the data structure's functionality to be realized, and is thus statutory.

Applicant is suggested to follow the suggested formats below to avoid a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 101:

Examples of acceptable language in computer-processing related claims:

- I. "computer readable medium" encoded with _____
 - [a] "a computer program"
 - [b] "software"
 - [c] "computer executable instructions"
 - [d] "instructions capable of being executed by a computer"
- II. "a computer readable medium" _____ "computer program"
 - [a] storing a
 - [b] embodied with a

[c] encoded with a
[d] having a stored
[e] having an encoded

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1, 5, 7, and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 is indefinite. The claim's preamble defines a method claim. However, the body of the claim appears to claim a wireless device. In other words, claim 1 simultaneously claims both statutory classes. The same reasoning applies to claim 5.

Claims 1 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential steps, such omission amounting to a gap between the steps. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted steps are: The WWAN control point or WAN provider supplies a list of WLANs to the pager/WLAN card of the wireless device. The same reasoning applies to claims 5, 7, and 20.

Claim 15 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the elements. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted elements are: The WWAN control point or WAN provider supplies a list of WLANs to the pager/WLAN card of the wireless device. The same reasoning applies to claim 19.

Allowable subject matter

3. Claims 5 and 19 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
4. Claims 21 and 8-14 would be allowable if claims 1, 7 and 15 rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
5. Claim 20 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, and under 35 U.S.C.101, set forth in this Office action.
